DEAR PRAYING PARTNERS:

Living by faith is always an adventure. Part of this adventure includes our little baby girl, due to be born here—a foreign country—on July 25th. She will make number four in our family! She has come with a number of blessings too. First, she is doing quite well. Second, Julie's doctor, who speaks five languages, just happens to speak English. Third, our insurance company has handled international coverage excellently! Fourth, just before we planned to announce this, four churches took us on for support, three of which did so within the past few weeks!

Trying to speak a foreign language is also an adventure. We do not always get it right. Sometimes things are downright confusing, but this past month has seen great progress! At times I think I have even been able to get away without anyone realizing I am a foreigner! It is fun; you ought to try living overseas sometime.

Now, down to business. We are meeting with the publishing house this week. Please pray; this is a pivotal meeting. Also, the World Cup is upon us. Thousands of tracts bearing the name of our ministry website will be distributed in Africa during this time. We are excited and honored. Thankfully, we have been able to get the site running well beforehand. We have also been able to add some new features, like videos.

Also, we continue to visit churches. This has been extremely helpful. We are seeing both what is being done and what is not being done. Please continue to pray that we make correct observations and that we apply what we learn.

Finally, a group of us will be street preaching and distributing tracts in one of this city's busiest areas—Sé. Please pray for God to be glorified, souls to be saved and that I will be able to use the Portuguese language at least enough to communicate clearly!

Excited about the prospects,

John, Julie, Selina, Gabriel & Elijah
